Destino is fast becoming Canada's classical crossover sensation, following the recent release of their critically acclaimed CD FORTE, the return from an exclusive performance at the 2008 Beijing Summer Olympics, performances at some of Canada's renowned summer music festivals, and the release of their radio single "Show Me the Way Back to Your Heart" by Diane Warren.

Their music - best described as 'popera' or 'opera with a pop flair' - is sweeping the musical charts thanks to the popularity of international recording artists Andrea Bocelli, Josh Groban, Mario Frangoulis, Russel Watson, and many others.
